I'm watching you and the things you do
The way you smile makes me want to hold you for a while
I just seem to love your style
You're the one that's meant for me

I'm watching you and I wish you knew
The way I feel I know that it must be love
You're the one I'm thinking of
I can't seem to stop watching you

I enjoy the way you walk
And the subtle way you talk
And I dream of dancing with you day and night
While our thoughts just drift away
Thoughts just drift away

I'm watching you and I hope someday
That you and I could be with each other eternally
Spending all your time with me
That is how I want it to be
