Lyrics by Yvonne Harris

I can hear the heart beat and see the dancing feet
I see people doing shoulder movements
When I see you groove, I like that certain move
Love is too much to touch

I like to see people singing and having fun
I see people doing body movements
It makes me so happy to know that you are mine
Love is too much to touch

I can hear the heart beat and see the dancing feet
I see people doing shoulder movements
When I see you groove, I like that certain move
Love is too much to touch

I like to see people singing and having fun
I see people doing body movements
It makes me so happy to know that you are mine
Love is too much to touch
