Lyrics by Lolita Harris and Yvonne Harris

---

In you I've found me a friend
Who I can trust and I can believe in
The things that we share in life
Are exciting and so pleasing
Since we met there are so many things
That I would like to tell you
All the joy and happiness you bring to me
Makes me feel good
The way that you give of yourself
Makes others truly love you
You give me self-confidence
Which helps me in my tomorrows
All the little things you seem to do
Are more than I can hope for
I really love you just the way you are
Don't change cause you're my inspiration

(Chorus)

Love is what I find in you x 4
